

CURT HARNETT

Olympic cyclist Curt Harnett has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Although hockey was his earliest passion, a love of cycling soon led Curt Harnett to become one of the world's premier cyclists. Within two years of pursuing a full-time cycling career, Curt had won a silver medal at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles in 1984. Curt went on to represent Canada at four Olympic Games, winning a silver and two bronze medals in the process. He also won 31 National Titles, two Silvers at Commonwealth Games and a gold and a bronze at Pan American Games. In 2005, Harnett was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame and a year later, into the Canadian Olympic Hall of Fame.
