

D.J. SMITH

Former Maple Leaf D.J. Smith has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

D.J. Smith was drafted into the National Hockey League by the Toronto Maple Leafs, making his NHL debut during the 1996-97 season. The big, tough defenceman played parts of two seasons with Toronto, and finished his NHL career as a member of the Colorado Avalanche. After retiring,

D.J. joined the coaching staff of the junior Windsor Spitfires, and was part of the franchise's back-to-back Memorial Cup championships. He joined the Oshawa Generals as head coach in 2012-13.