

JENNIFER BOTTERILL

Three-time Olympic gold medalist in women's hockey, Jennifer Botterill, has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Jennifer Botterill was a member of the Canadian Women's Hockey Team since 1997, and participated in four Winter Olympic Games. In 1998, Jennifer and the Canadian team took the Olympic silver medal, but in 2002, 2006 and 2010, they captured the Olympic gold. Jennifer is a five-time World Champion and was twice named the most valuable player at the World Championship tournaments. While attending Harvard, she also played hockey for the university and is the only two-time recipient of the Patty Kazmaier award, given to the top player in women's college hockey. Jennifer Botterill retired from playing hockey in 2011, but with speaking engagements and television appearances, is never too far from the game.
