

JIM RALPH

Toronto Maple Leaf broadcaster Jim Ralph has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Jim Ralph was drafted by the Chicago Blackhawks in 1980, and through the next seven seasons, the netminder toiled in Springfield, Denver, Baltimore, Milwaukee, Halifax and Newmarket before a knee injury ended both his travel and his NHL dreams. Instead, Ralph moved into broadcasting in 1997, adding colour to Toronto Maple Leaf broadcasts. The wildly entertaining Ralph is also a very popular after-dinner speaker at sporting events and banquets.
