

PHIL PRITCHARD

The Keeper of the Stanley Cup has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

You've seen him on TV commercials, in countless photographs and each year when the Stanley Cup is presented to that season's champion, he is one of the two gentlemen carrying the Stanley Cup to centre ice to be awarded by commissioner Gary Bettman to the winning team. He's Phil Pritchard, a vice president at the Hockey Hall of Fame, but best known as the guy who wears the white gloves as the Keeper of the Cup. Phil has travelled around the world with the Stanley Cup, including a memorable stop in Russia the first time the Cup visited there.
