

RICK MIDDLETON

Former NHL sniper and three-time NHL All-Star Rick Middleton has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

In a 14-season NHL career spent with the New York Rangers and Boston Bruins, Rick Middleton scored 448 goals and 540 assists for 988 points in 1,005 regular season NHL contests. Rick had five straight seasons in which he scored 40 or more goals and 90 or more points. He had a career-season in 1981-82 when he fired 51 goals, was named to the Second All-Star Team and was named the winner of the Lady Byng Trophy as the league's most gentlemanly player. In 1985-86, he was named co-captain of the Bruins, wearing the 'C' during home games. Rick also starred in international play, joining Team Canada in the Canada Cup tournament in 1981 and 1984. Toronto-born, Middleton also starred in junior with the Oshawa Generals, where he led the league in scoring in 1972-73.