

VINAY VIRMANI

Actor Vinay Virmani has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

After graduating from York University in Toronto, Vinay Virmani attended the prestigious Lee Strasberg Theatre and Film Institute in New York City. His breakthrough film was 2011's 'Breakaway,' a hockey movie in which he starred along with Russell Peters and Rob Lowe. The film, which Vinay co-wrote, was produced by Paul Gross and garnered excellent reviews. The storyline revolves around Vinay's character being forbidden by his father to play hockey, so secretively, he and his friends form a team called the 'Speedy Singhs,' which progresses to the tournament championship. Vinay's next film, 'Dr. Cabbie,' is about an unemployed doctor who uses his taxi as a medical clinic. Vinay stars and is joined by Kunal Nayyar of 'The Big Bang Theory.'
